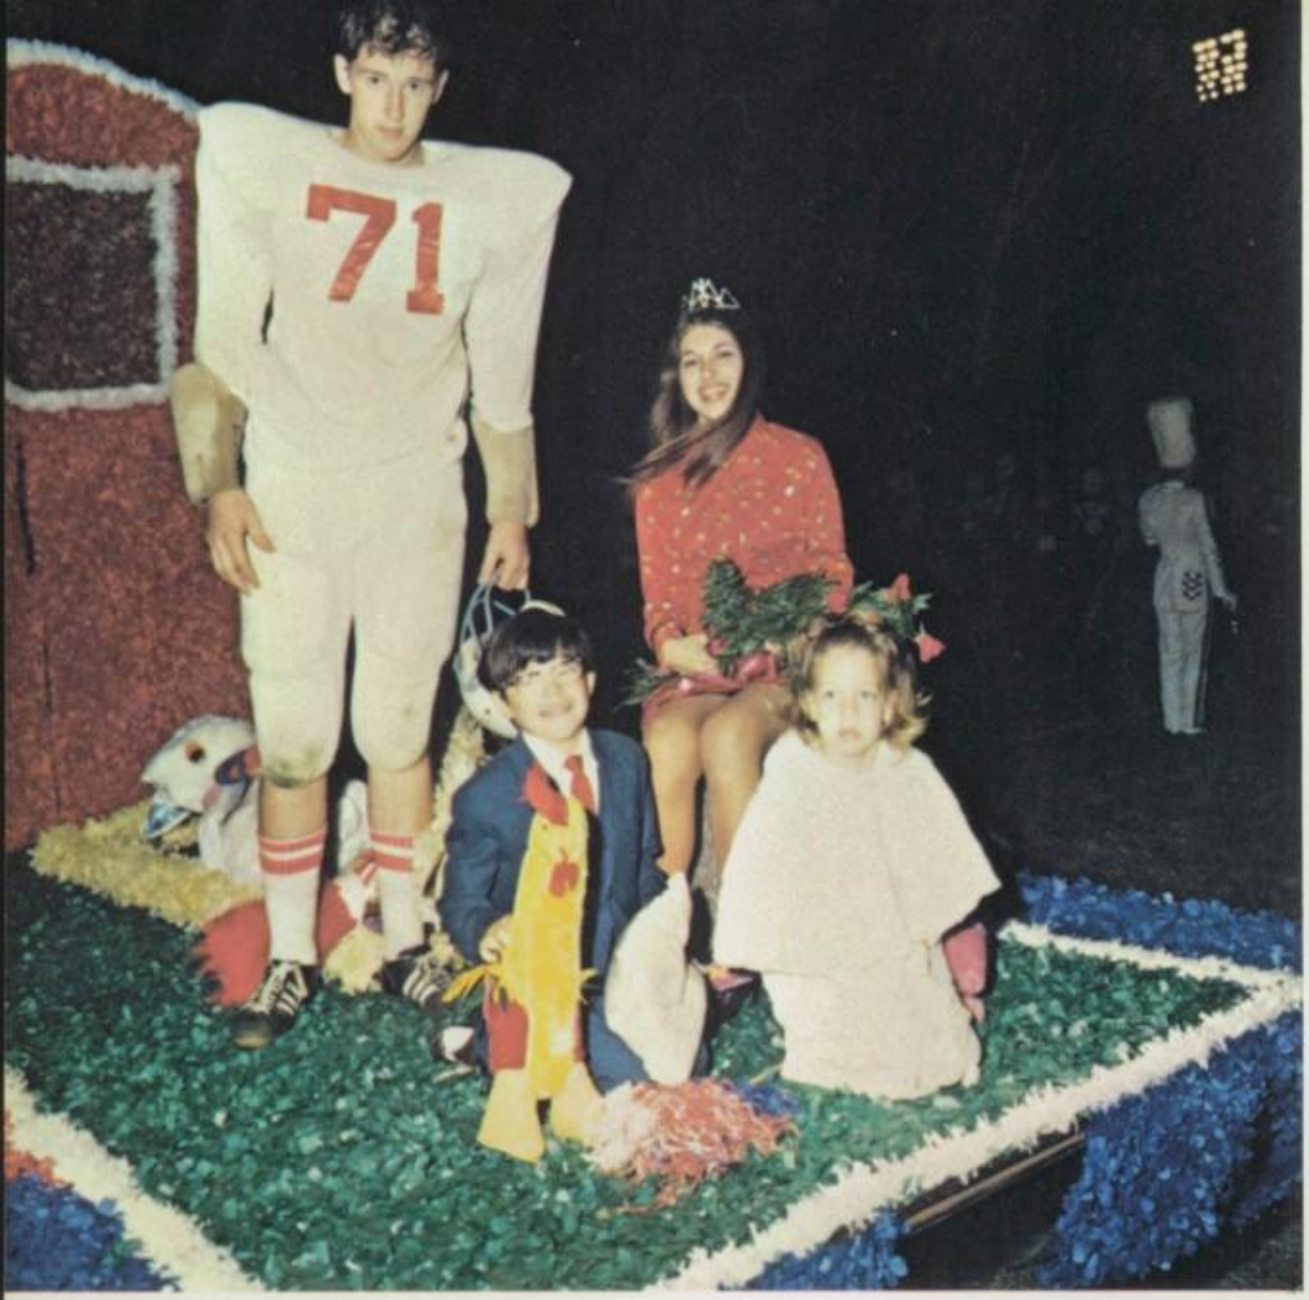
Today is the dawning of a new day. For many this presents a dilemma, for while life is to be lived for tomorrow, our society either lives for today or yesterday. While the half-haloed memories of the past and the glorious jubilation of now are fine for nostalgic remembrance and a license for fun, what are these if there is no future on which to base these hopes and aspirations? With no future some would have wasted twelve years of an education that prepares one for a lifetime of learning. In the words of a well-known contemporary poem, "Go placidly amidst the noise and haste" for tomorrow is a new day.



Homecoming "1973" kicked off on a high note as the Eagle Harriers defeated county rival Greencastle handily by a score of 28-29. The trike race, sponsored by the Student Council, followed the cross country meet with the 8th grade team emerging victorious for the second straight year. Next, the float judging took place. The Juniors captivated first place followed by the Freshmen. Even though these events proved spectacular, the highlight of the night was the crowning of the "1973 Homecoming Queen".

At Left: As halftime ended, Terry Lundy had been chosen to be South Putnam's second Football Homecoming Queen.

The four queen candidates anxiously awaited for the halftime to arrive with the wonderment of "Will it be me?"

Cheerleaders Corliss Arnold and Marcia Carpenter held the uprights during pregame as the team was being introduced.

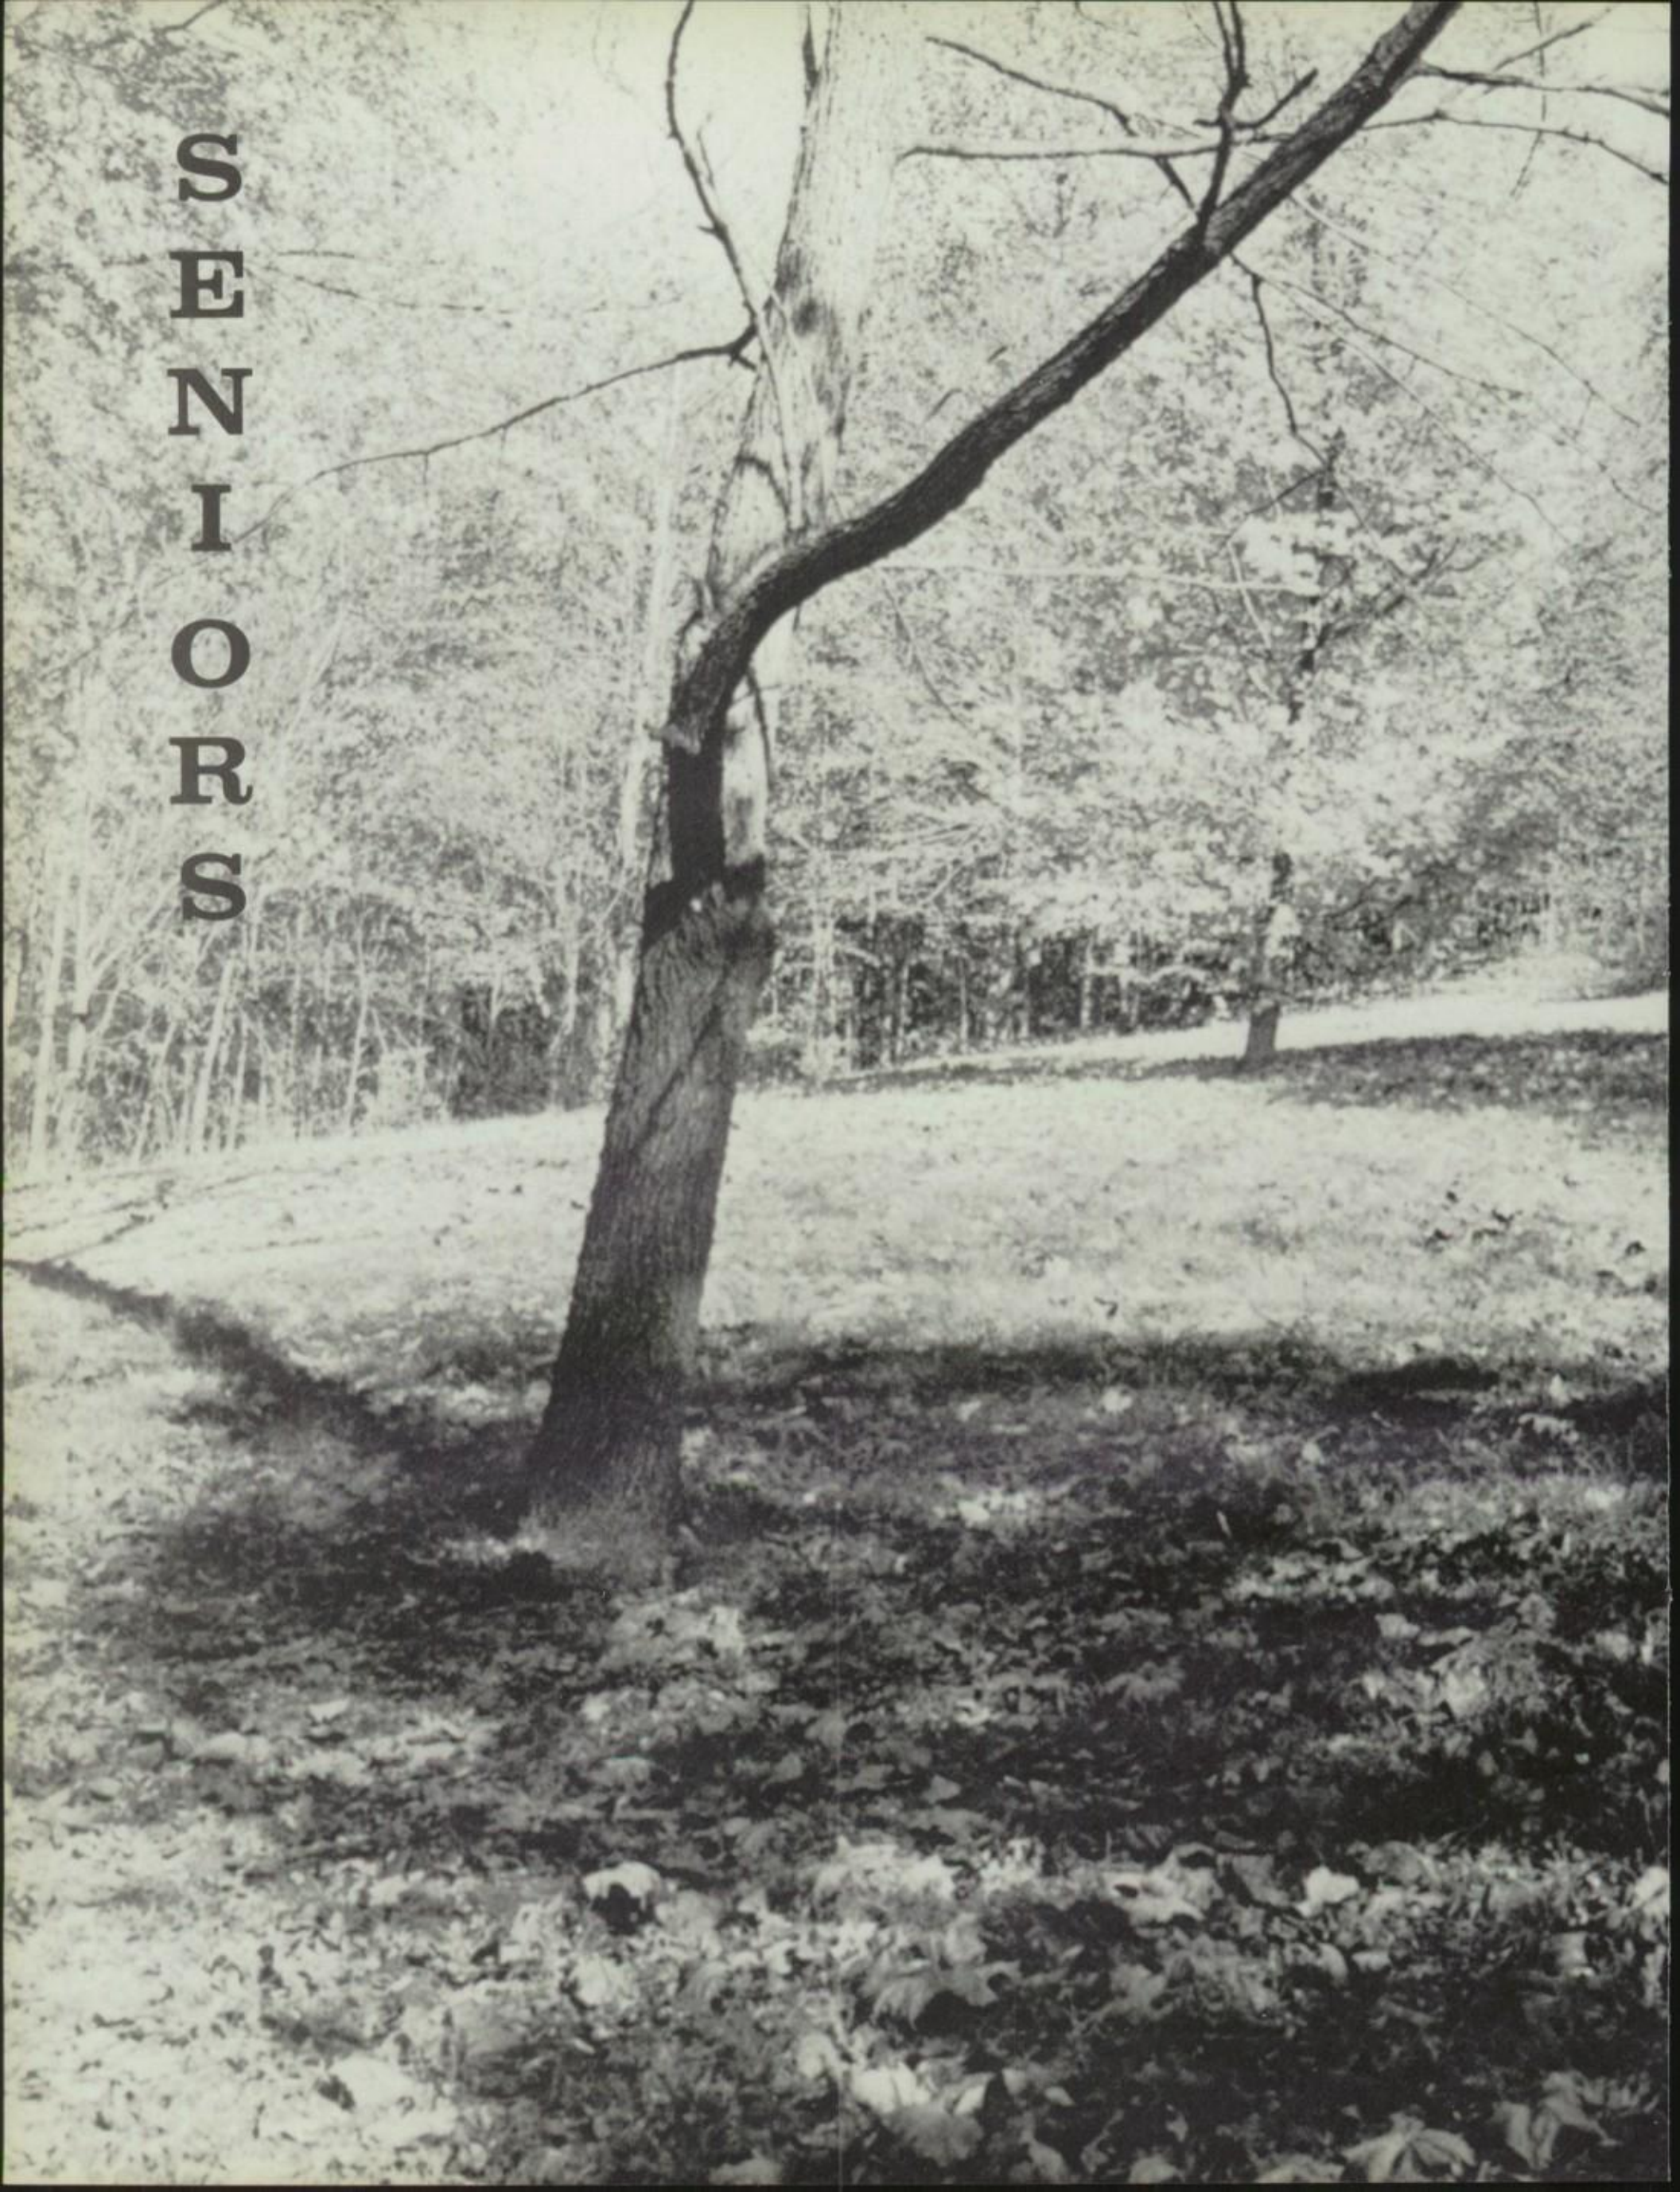
TERRY LUNDY REIGNS AS 1973 QUEEN

The Junior Class pooled their ideas and used the sub-theme, "Bale the Sour Clovers" to take first place honors in the float competition.

The ball seemed to be a matter of dispute many times during the game. In this particular case, the Eagles maintained possession though they had a rough time achieving it.

The Sophomores used the sub-theme, "Clovers Make Sour Mash" to turn out another great float.

SENIORS



The dawning of a new day. This means much to everyone, but to one group, the seniors, it is especially important. For them a new day dawns indeed. This day is life which begins for the seniors upon commencement.

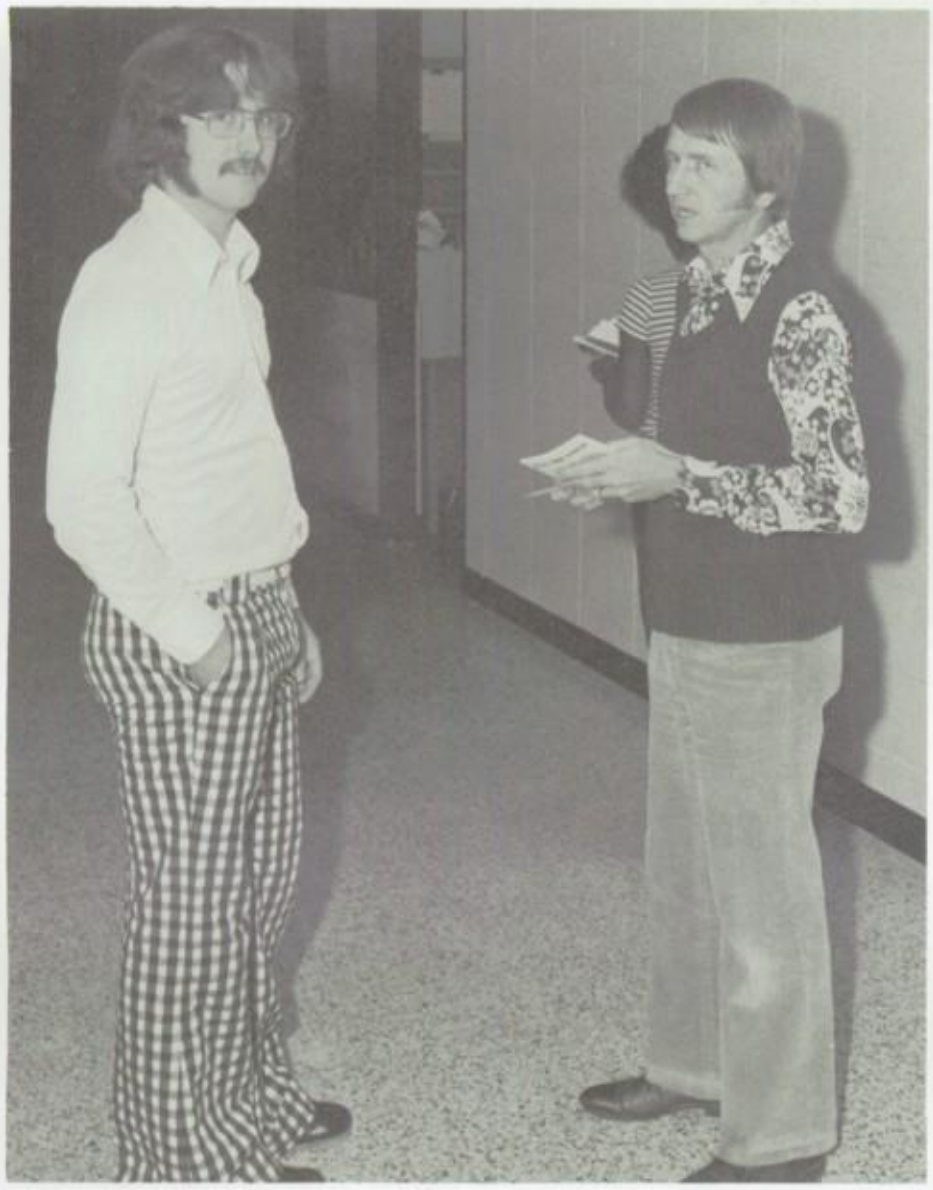
Art of Performing



Mr. Whitaker explains the characterization in Eli's part for "Up the Down Staircase"

Janet Witt portrayed a friend of Miss Barrett's in the Fall Play.

Actresses take a quick glance at their cues before appearing on stage.

In the Spring of 1973, Thespian Troupe 92 presented the play "Charley's Aunt". Leads were portrayed by Rick Carpenter, who played the part of both Lord Fancourt Baberley and "Charley's Aunt", and Dayna Whitehead, who was Donna Lucia D'Alvadorez, Charley's real aunt. The play was directed by Mrs. Vera English and Mrs. Ann Robinson. In the Fall, "Up the Down Staircase" was presented which starred Tricia Lister as a "rookie" teacher trying to overcome the hostilities of her new students. Mr. David Whitaker directed the production.

SPORTS

A great American statesman recognized the importance of a healthy body, so he established the President's Council on Physical Fitness. True to this tradition there was the "dawning" of an expanded sports program to maintain a strong body for growth now and health in the future.

The word PRIDE to our team does not have the standard dictionary definition. We feel that each member of our team has PRIDE in our community, our school, our athletic program, our coaches, our teachers, and each other, but our meaning of the word PRIDE is as follows.

P— Stands for Prayer.

R—Stands for Religious Commitment.

I—Stands for Individual and Respect.

D—Stands for Dedication.

E—Stands for Ending.

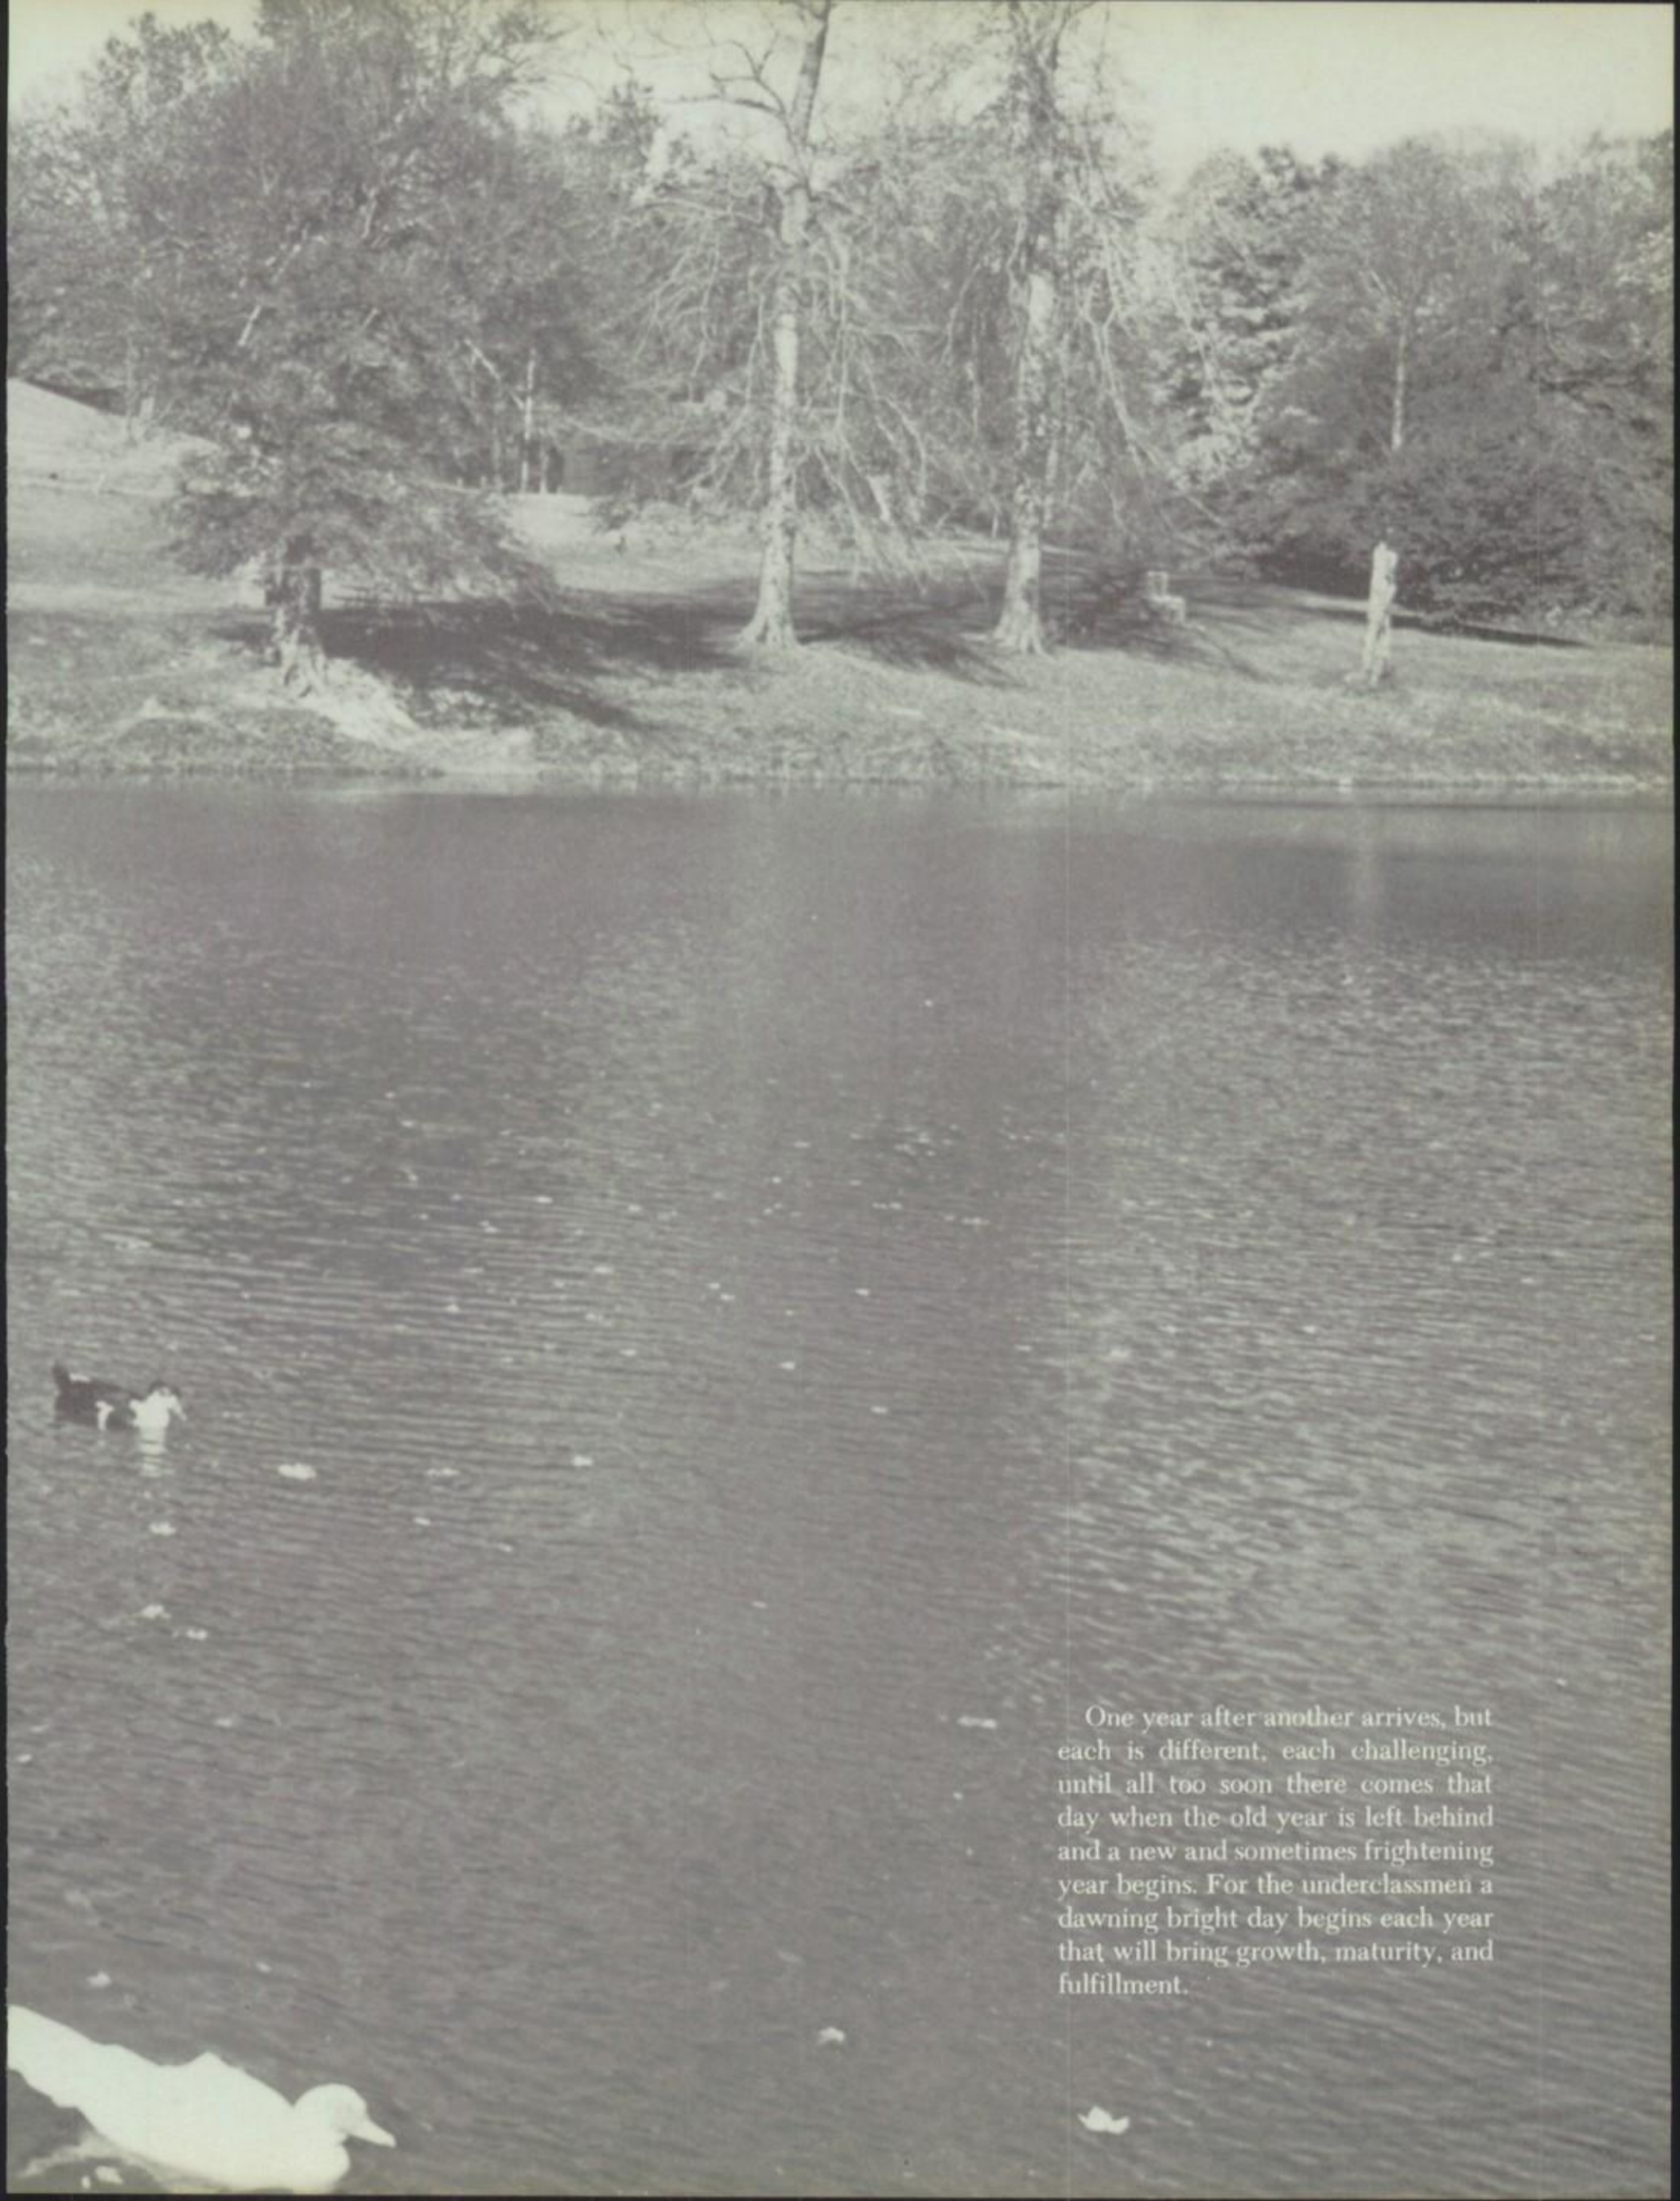
UNDERCLASSMEN



One year after another arrives, but each is different, each challenging, until all too soon there comes that day when the old year is left behind and a new and sometimes frightening year begins. For the underclassmen a dawning bright day begins each year that will bring growth, maturity, and fulfillment.

Gosh Debbie, that's not the same answer I had!

Everyone seems to be so interested!

Working with clay can be a very messy ordeal if the clay is not used properly.

Come on girls, let's get it together.

It looks like SOME students still study!

On no! ANOTHER Sour note!

There's one thing to remember when being a pom-pom girl; concentrate on what you're doing!

The Senior band proves their dedication by marching inside when weather won't allow outside practices.

Gloria Stevens, Freshman Princess, sits upon the second place float.
